Issue III

Sent by Adan our Heroes to the Dragonborn Duchy to check on a fellow wizard, whom he hadn't heard from in a long while. Our Heroes found the wizard had been murdered by the Dragonborn Chancellor's demented father-in-law because he thought he himself was the wizard and the wizard an impostor.

But there was something suspicious going on. Taking it upon himself to dispense justice for the murdered wizard, Alexander the stormed the tower. In the course of arresting the demented man, it was discovered he was actually a Drow in disguise. After slaying the Drow, they found there was a portal to Lorach's domain hidden in the wizard's residence.

The High Priest of Bahamut accused our Heroes of being Drow spies. Alexander declared the whole city to be Drow sympathizers. The High Priest rallied the city guard and Paladins to take down our Heroes. As our Heroes were facing down the small army, Bahamut herself appeared, and destroyed the wizard's tower and the portal with it. Having spared our Heroes, the mighty Goddess declared Alexander to lead his party and continue their search for the blade. Alexander pledged his allegiance to Her as well.

Having seen Bahamut speak to Alexander, those Dragonborn she had spared, see him as Her profit. These refugees, followed Alexander as he and the rest of our Heroes left the destroyed city. Gathering them together, blessed them all, and sent them north to make a camp and care for other survivors.

Moving on to the north, our Heroes followed the ancient map, leading them to a forest marked as Kingdom of Fang. This forest was home to a clan of wolf humanoids. Our Heroes found the clan on alert, setting up defenses against the Drow. Again, our Heroes were accused of being allies of the Drow. This unfortunately led to a battle. Their leader fled to a cave, and tried to collapse the entrance. Killing himself in the process.

Making their way thru the cave, they found it led to a very old tower. Climbing the laborious stairs, they made their way to the top of the tower. There they found a large nest, but there was no sign of any flying creature having lived there. Searching the nest, they found a small piece of strange black metal.
