Sponsored by Vega's Li'l Boy Toy. Keeping Kain frosty for hours!

Issue V

OK so we pick up where we left off, Kain and Keetha were still making out, the kobold had taken off for parts unknown and the rest of the party was at the table. Suddenly Jase appears from a portal and was rather put out that the party didn't care that she vanished. They tried to tell her otherwise but she had seen the truth. They had just acted like it was no big deal.

Regardless, she proceeds to tell them of her adventures in the wild magic. She tells them of the Jewel Riders who rode the wild magic thru travel trees. It was suggested that they find the travel trees and the magic stones they can use the travel trees to move around and it might help them find out who is doing this. She also mentions that she was told friendship is magic!

So when morning came Kain is summoned before the queen for what happened last night. (The kobold incident, not him and Keetha) and she asked him about the Kobold and why he let that happen. He explained that the kobold was forced on them by drusilla. The queen understands. She knows about drusilla and knows not to mess with her. However, upon hearing of Jaise's adventure and the jewel riders, the queen directs them to Katherine as this was Katherine's favorite stories.

So, our intrepid party heads to Katherine's tower, she starts to tell them all about the Jewel riders and really wants to hear Jaise's story. However, Kain couldn't wait so after getting the basic story tells everybody time to go. This did not please the royal enchantress at all as she wanted to get more details from Jaise. After leaving the group encounters a druid by the name of Jannalor Maggeiros and they ask him if his druid leader knows anything about the travel trees. He tells them that he will see and will come back tomorrow and let them know if his master will meet with them. Meanwhile tansy decides to steal the black bat necklace the weapon shop owner, barbara had. Waiting until after hours, tansy hides with her cloak. She manages to get the necklace off Barbara's neck w/o the woman knowing. She comes back and has fiddle "Identify" it! He tells them it can cast fireballs. (I suspect Kain knows all about that after his night with Keetha!)

The next day Jannalor comes back and tells the gang he will take them to his leader so to speak. So, the party with their new companion deputy Bob. ("Deputy Bob! Deputy Bob!" Shut up vince! Go back to your cartoon!) head out to meet the head druid in this area, Lhoris Phirieth. They ask him about the travel trees and he tells them he doesn't know anything but he knows a dryad who might. He leads them to a special grove where they meet a dryad named Alicia. She tells them that Avalon existed long ago. The travel trees look just like other trees. However, the trees could talk. Alicia didn't know where the trees were but suggested they talk to the Lorax. He speaks for the trees for the trees have no voice. OH wait, no, that's wrong, she directed them to Granamyr, oldest and wisest of the Dragons. She lives in the Magnetic mountains way up highway past the Frost Giants territory and way above Lion's Gate pass.

And so, our intrepid warriors ventured into the mountains. Soon they were captured by Frost Giants. They were brought before the king, One Clekvar Frost Beard. He was not happy that they had intruded upon his domain. He told them that they should kill them but his daughter had an interest in humans and wanted one as a pet. Kian, brave man that he was volunteered Deputy Bab for the task. However, Ol' Bob Dawg wasn't the type King was looking for. However, they did manage to strike an alternate deal with them. Go and retrieve the mother of all diamonds from a nearby temple. So, they are "escorted" by two Frost Giants, Grewthos and Agir. After about half a day they come to the hole in the wall cave and go in. They discover a golden door at the other end of the cave. One of the giants presses some panels and a voice throws them a riddle, they unfortunately got lucky and solved it. They went in and the doors closed behind them and out came two snow leopards who attacked them and two yetis (Yeti another fine mess they've gotten into!!) so we left our adventures in pitched battle with the yetis after dispatching the leopards. (wait until PETA hears about that!!!)

So, will they survive? How high is Granamyr's place? Will Keetha think less of Kain because he didn't sacrifice himself to the Frost Giant princess? What awaits them at Lion's Gate pass? Will Kain and Keetha make some "Private time" while on the road? Will Kain's Mom get grandkids sooner rather than later? Will Kain ever learn Patience? (He will if he wants to keep Keetha around! ;)

tune in next week! Same Dungeon time, Same Dragon channel!
